Midyear Workshops Program

Continuing Education credits provided by the Institute for Continuing Education

OUR MISSION: To promote excellence and progress in hypnosis research, education, and clinical practice.

Founded in 1949, the Society for Clinical and Experimental Hypnosis (SCEH) is an international organization of psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, nurses, dentists and physicians who are dedicated to the highest level of scientific inquiry and the conscientious application of hypnosis in the clinical setting.

The membership represents a rare union of some of the finest academicians, researchers and clinicians whose collaboration is designed to support and inform the clinical work and research of its members and other professionals.

A distinguishing feature of the group is its premise that sound clinical practice is built upon serious scientific inquiry and that important empirical questions are often raised by those who care for patients.

Through workshops, lectures, publication of the International Journal for Clinical and Experimental Hypnosis (IJCEH), and other teaching activities of SCEH, members educate health care professionals, academicians, researchers, students and the general public about the nature and ethical uses of hypnosis and related phenomena. Introductory (Basic Workshop)

April 20-22 2018 (Friday thru Sunday)

For hundreds of years, hypnosis has been a powerful tool that has allowed medical and psychological providers a means to assist their patients or clients. This course follows established Standards of Training to provide students with a basic background and understanding to begin using hypnosis within the context of their own scope of practice.

In addition to reviewing a brief history of hypnosis, this course will introduce students to the steps to facilitate a hypnotic state along with various types of suggestions for positive therapeutic change. Emphasis will be placed on how to integrate these skills into clinical practice or apply to research models.

This workshop will include live demonstrations, videos, PowerPoint lectures and supervised hands-on practice of hypnotic inductions, deepening techniques, suggestions and re-alerting. Each student will have the opportunity to hypnotize and to be hypnotized in the classroom setting.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Define hypnosis based on current published definitions of hypnosis
2. Identify at least three major figures in the historical development of hypnosis
3. Identify at least three major theories of hypnosis
4. Identify the major myths and misconceptions regarding hypnosis
5. Identify three possible changes associated with hypnosis and memory.
6. Discuss specific ethical/legal issues involving hypnotic restoration of memories, disqualification of testimony in court, and the "false memory" syndrome
7. Cite three key points of hypnosis in a non-technical manner in educating a client or patient about hypnosis
8. Summarize two or more important elements in obtaining informed consent regarding the use of hypnosis clinically
9. Identify at least five phenomena associated with hypnosis and how they may be utilized in clinical practice and treatment planning
10. Summarize at least two reasons for removing suggestions and for re-alerting clients; and demonstrate at least one method for re-alerting from hypnosis
11. Define at least six principles of hypnotic induction and suggestion
12. Demonstrate a hypnotic induction and provide a therapeutic suggestion to a volunteer client
13. Participate in at least three separate hypnotic experiences as subject and as facilitator
14. Cite evidence for the long-term stability of hypnotic responsivity and be able to identify the age range when hypnotic responsiveness peaks
15. List the traditional "stages of hypnosis"
16. Describe at least four traditional methods for deepening or intensifying hypnotic involvement
17. Be capable of teaching self-hypnosis to patients/clients
18. Differentiate when one might use a suggestive hypnotic approach and when an insight-oriented or exploratory hypnotic approach might be appropriate.
19. Identify therapist, patient, and context variables that may contribute to resistance
20. Identify the ethical-legal issues and standards for professional conduct in using hypnosis clinically

Advanced Workshop

April 20-22 2018 (Friday thru Sunday)

Power Tools for Anxiety and Affect Regulation: Integration of Hypnosis, Cognitive-Behavioral and Mindfulness Interventions in Clinical Hypnosis

Mastery and maintenance of affect regulation are often impeded by an individual's habitual knee-jerk response to frustration, perceived threats, or environmental stressors. This workshop focuses on what affect dysregulation is, how it affects our clients and their relationships, and how it can be controlled through self-regulation tools. In addition, the workshop will have a specific focus on anxiety as a sub-set of affect dysregulation.

With the right tools, therapists can help reactive clients stay calm in stressful situations. With the right tools, clients who stress out can learn to tone down or tune out their stressors. This workshop offers an affect regulation toolbox of techniques that incorporate hypnosis, cognitive behavioral approaches, and mindfulness. Therapists can dip into this all-purpose toolbox for interventions that can help clients manage their emotions, soften their anxiety, and navigate conflicted relationships with spouses, adult children, and co-workers.

This workshop also introduces the groundbreaking STOP Solution for calming emotional flooding. The STOP Solution provides a methodical protocol of easy-to-use tools that can be applied when clients experience anxiety or other difficult-to-manage emotions. The tools based on hypnosis, mindfulness and cognitive behavioral approaches have specific and individualized applicability to the most commonly experienced triggers.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Name the inter-related components of affect dysregulation.
2. State four causes of affect dysregulation.
3. Name the four major components of anxiety
4. Articulate how hypnosis promotes affect regulation
5. Demonstrate the STOP solution as an integrative model for affect Regulation
6. Demonstrate and practice four quick interventions that down regulate the nervous system
7. Video demonstration of a case demonstrating the use of the STOP Solution
8. Articulate the role of mindfulness in the treatment of anxiety and emotion management techniques
9. Delineate and demonstrate treatment protocols that integrate ego-state therapy
10. Delineate and demonstrate a treatment protocol using CBT and hypnosis
11. Construct- self-talk interventions that counteract negative self-hypnosis
12. Describe two techniques for tolerating uncertainty
13. Delineate the sequence of treatment for treatment of anxiety
14. Demonstrate the application of hypnosis for the treatment of GAD and SAD
15. Articulate and demonstrate hypnotic protocols for specific phobias and PTSD
16. Identify two interventions that can help clients tolerate the physiological manifestations of panic disorder
17. Articulate the effect of emotional dysregulation and anxiety in relationships
18. Delineate the appeal, attack, and retreat pattern in relationships
19. Demonstrate one affect regulation technique for diminishing conflicts in relationships
20. Demonstrate a treatment protocol to enhance attunement in relationships
21. Delineate and demonstrate a treatment protocol to heal early relational wounding
22. Increasing compliance with at home practice

NOTE: Our Advanced Workshop instructor has recommended that attendees obtain her book, The Road to Calm: Life-Changing Tools to Stop Runaway Emotions, which will be used in her presentation.

Here is a description of the book:

Emotional flooding—being overwhelmed by feelings—happens in response to stress, anxiety, and life's challenges. This detailed workbook presents skills and tools on how to dial down reactivity, practice mindfulness, and focus positively on the future. Written to conquer a broad range of emotional challenges in easily accessible language, this book is intended to help readers improve the quality of their everyday lives. Throughout the workbook, readers will find guided imagery exercises, opportunities for journaling and reflection, mindfulness practices, and matching audio exercises on the accompanying CD. A complimentary companion app also enhances readers' ability to take these exercises on the go. The result of this gentle and reliable program is resilience, well-being, and freedom from the emotional patterns that create suffering and damage relationships. You can find the book on Amazon.

About Workshop Sponsors - SCEH and APA Division 30

About SCEH

As its mission, SCEH exists to promote excellence and progress in scientifically based hypnosis research, education, and clinical practice. The Society's goal is to grow understanding and clinical applications of hypnosis now and in the future. SCEH boasts a rich history in hypnosis training and research, and each year presents its Annual Workshops and Scientific Session, now entering its 69th year. As the voice of professional hypnosis, SCEH provides benefits that include: education, the International Journal of Clinical Hypnosis, a mentor program and the ability to network with leaders in the hypnosis community. For membership info, please visit: <http://www.sceh.us>

About APA Division 30

APA Division 30 is devoted to exchanging scientific information, advancing appropriate teaching and research, and developing high standards for the practice of hypnosis. Areas of interest of the membership are diverse, including topics such as mind/body connections; dissociation; hypnosis; medicine, professional and public education.

For membership info, please visit: <http://www.apa.org/about/division/div30.aspx>

SCEH Membership Benefits

SCEH - Global Hypnosis Community

As a member of SCEH, you are part of a selective society that contains some of the best and most productive hypnosis researchers and clinicians in the field. In the past four decades, the majority of the important English language publications in the field of scientific hypnosis have been written by members of SCEH. As a member, you have opportunity to ask questions, exchange ideas and collaborate with those who are most experienced with a variety of clinical problems and techniques in hypnosis.

SCEH Workshops & Scientific Session – CE Credit Opportunities

SCEH provides professional development opportunities that include an Annual Conference and periodic Clinical Hypnosis Workshops. Members receive a discounted registration fee.

SCEH Scholarly Journal

Your membership includes a subscription to our peer-reviewed publication, the International Journal of Clinical and Experimental Hypnosis (IJCEH). This prestigious publication is among the 10 most cited journals in the psychological literature and is mailed to you. IJCEH is the leading voice in hypnosis worldwide for researchers, scholars, and clinicians in psychiatry, psychology, social work, dentistry, and medical specialties. Contributors include some of the most prominent scholars in the field, with articles covering topical trends and the latest findings from well-designed studies for 'students' of hypnosis.

Online Journal Access

Members have online access to the International Journal of Clinical and Experimental Hypnosis as well as the American Journal of Clinical Hypnosis, the journal of the American Society of Clinical Hypnosis. To access the journals online log in to the web site with your username and password and select Online Journals from the Members Area.

SCEH Focus, Our Quarterly Member Newsletter

Members receive our quarterly newsletter, Focus, with news and updates about Society members and articles about how SCEH is working to advance the field of hypnosis. Submissions from members are invited. Focus is emailed to all members. Current and past issues are also available online.

SCEH Member Directory

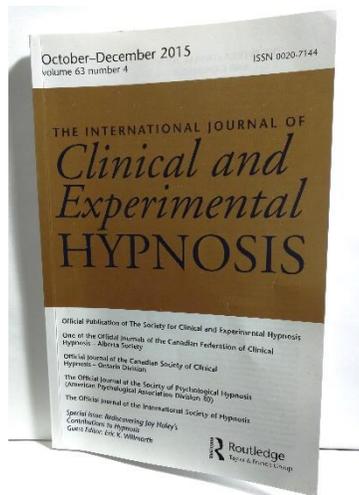

The Member Directory is a great resource for networking with colleagues and for finding referrals. You can use it to search for members by keyword, location or other parameters. The SCEH Member Directory is visible only to current members, and to access it, you must be logged in to the Members Only portion of our website.

SCEH Mentor Program

The Mentorship Program is designed to boost the professional growth of early career professionals engaged in research within the society. The Society is devoted not only to accommodating accomplished clinical and experimental researchers, but also to fostering the next generation of scientists. This member only program connects early career professionals looking for guidance with senior Society members who are intent on supporting new talent. The Mentor-Mentee pairs will be matched based on their research interests, needs and expertise.
